Subject of possible rule making: The Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML) program (Title 50A RCW) requires updating existing rules and promulgating new rules to ensure clarity and make necessary changes based on programmatic needs. This preproposal statement of inquiry includes, but is not limited to, consideration of rules related to benefit proration, backdating, and other clarifying guidance regarding benefit eligibility.

Statutes authorizing the agency to adopt rules on this subject: RCW 50A.05.060

Reasons why rules on this subject may be needed and what they might accomplish: The department recognizes the need for clear and usable guidance for ongoing programmatic operations. The department is considering the following rules to contribute to that guidance.

The department will consider updating language in WAC 192-620-035 regarding benefit proration to ensure proper benefit payment in the first and last week of an employee's leave.

The department will also consider establishing guidelines regarding how long after a qualifying event an employee may file an initial application for benefits without the need to demonstrate good cause for backdating.

The department will also consider codifying additional guidance regarding eligibility for benefits.

Identify other federal and state agencies that regulate this subject and the process coordinating the rule with these agencies: No federal agencies and no other state agencies regulate the PFML program as authority is granted solely to the Employment Security Department.

Process for developing new rule (check all that apply):

- Negotiated rule making
- Pilot rule making
- Agency study

Other (describe) The draft rules will be shared with the public, stakeholders, and the program's Advisory Committee. The department will solicit input from all involved parties and consider all comments in the development of the final rules.
