Washington’s Paid Family and Medical Leave program is here.

Let’s all get ready to be there for care.

In January 2019, Washington employees and many employers began investing in a statewide program to provide paid leave to give or receive care. The benefit began in 2020.

Paid Family and Medical Leave supports Washingtonians, whether they are recovering from a serious illness or injury, caring for a new child or helping an aging parent. It means workers won’t have to choose between a paycheck and caring for their health and their family.

What it is:
The program is mandatory because the spirit behind this benefit is one of understanding that at some time we all need—or need to give—extra care and attention.

Who’s eligible:
Nearly every Washington employee who works at least 820 hours (approximately 16 hours weekly) qualifies for the program. All paid work counts toward the 820 hours, including part-time, seasonal and temporary work. To learn more, visit paidleave.wa.gov.

Benefit details:
• Allows up to 12 weeks of paid leave, or up to 18 weeks in certain circumstances.
• Workers receive between $100 and $1,327 per week, depending on income.

Your contribution:
You may have seen a premium set aside from your paycheck, like you see for Medicare. The total premium is 0.6% of your wages and may be shared between an employee and employer. If you make $50,000 year, your share of the premium is $4.22 per week.
